Think about...
How did Nyasha respond? What did she say? What did she do? What did the boy do?

E.g. Nyasha spoke kindly, "Would you like some food?", and she offered him something to eat. The boy quietly took it and disappeared.

Think about...
How did Nyasha feel when she looked at the city ahead of her? What did she say? What did she do? What happened next?

E.g. She felt amazed as she stared at the city and said, "I have never seen anything so beautiful." Her father took her arm and together they walked down the hill, crossed the river and entered the city gate.

You can select the option 'record'. This will record your answers without you having to worry about writing/typing them in.

Click done when you have finished recording your message.

You can add as many of these as you like. All over the page if you want to!
