Dear Parents/Carers,

We have been lucky enough to receive 35 free tickets for an orchestral performance of The Snowman which will be performed on Friday 2nd December 2022 in Colchester.

We will be running a music composition competition on Purple Mash to choose the 35 lucky children who will receive a free ticket. If you wish for your child to enter the competition please allow them to log onto Purple Mash over the half-term holidays to compose a short melody. Their log in details are in their reading records.

The compositions will include the following:

Key Stage 1 – 12 bars of melody.

Key Stage 2 – 32 bars of melody.

The children can include whatever instruments they like and even some sound effects. You will find a link to the competition under their 2do tab on Purple Mash. The competition will close on Tuesday 1st November 2022.

If your child is chosen as a winner by the Student Council, a fee of £10 for the coach will need to be paid by Wednesday 23rd November 2022. This should be a real Christmas treat and offer the chance for any budding musicians to compose a future Christmas number one!

Many thanks for your continued support,

Mrs Ryan
